Drive-Through Flu Vaccination Clinic

Be one of the first to receive your flu shot this year! And do it with the convenience of never having to get out of your vehicle!

The Calhoun County Public Health Department and Kellogg Community College have announced a Drive-Through Flu Vaccination Clinic for ages 6 months of age and older. The Drive-Through Vaccination Clinic is planned for Friday, September 26, 2014 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Kellogg Community College parking lot, 450 North Avenue in Battle Creek.

FluMist, High Dose Flu vaccines, and Pneumococcal Vaccine (Pneumonia) will also be available at this clinic. Prices range from $31-$45 for flu vaccines/mist and the Pneumococcal Vaccine is $82. Cash and check will be accepted. First Come First Serve. Once vaccines are gone, the Clinic will close.

The following insurances will also be accepted: Medicaid, Medicare, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, Cigna, Coventry, GEHA PPO, Health Plus PPO, Humana, Liberty Union, Mailhandlers, PAI, PHP of Michigan, and Tricare.

The Health Department is recommending that anyone receiving a flu or pneumonia shot at the Drive-Through Clinic wear short sleeve attire. Anyone allergic to eggs cannot receive the flu shot. Participants MUST have their picture ID and insurance card available when they come to the clinic.

To expedite the process, the Health Department urges residents who go to the Drive-Through Clinic to please download and complete their forms and bring them when they come to the Clinic. To download forms go to http://www.calhouncountymi.gov/government/health\_department/ then click on Flu Vaccine Consent Forms. You must complete a separate form for every individual in your vehicle receiving a flu vaccine, mist, and/or Pneumococcal vaccine.

The Calhoun County Public Health Department Clinical Services Office will be closed during this event. Flu vaccine is subject to availability. For more information call (269) 969-6363.
